JOB OPENING: DESIGNER / ACCESS PLANNER

MAY 2018

With over 30 years of experience, Kessler McGuinness & Associates, LLC (KMA) is nationally recognized as a leader in accessibility and Universal Design. KMA's clients include developers, architects, project managers, government agencies, attorneys, and owners. KMA works on all types of facilities including commercial, retail, hospitality, multi-family housing, medical, educational, institutional, religious, and single-family residential. In addition to providing accessibility and Universal Design consulting services, KMA offers a complete scope of architectural design services within this same specialized field.

Position Description: The Designer / Access Planner will provide project support to KMA architectural design projects, including measuring existing conditions documentation, schematic design, construction drawings, and construction administration. (S)he will also perform architectural plan reviews and existing conditions audits for compliance with various state and federal design standards throughout the US.

Requirements:

- Bachelors degree or higher in architecture or related field (professional degree preferred, but not required).
- Minimum two years' experience as an architectural designer/drafter.
- Progress towards completion of NCARB AXP hours preferred, but not required.
- Familiarity with accessible design standards preferred, but not required.
- Detail oriented and highly organized.
- Ability to travel (within the US) preferred, but not required – including current driver's license.

Compensation: Commensurate with experience. This is a full-time position, with potential for growth within the firm for the right person.

Please send letter of interest, resume highlighting accessibility-related experience, and references to Julie Garland: jgarland@kmaccess.com.

KMA is an equal-opportunity employer.
